

DEEP IN THE DELTA

Saigon – Chau Doc (3 Days/2 Nights upstream)

DAY 1: SAIGON-CAN THO

“The Sea of Mangroves”

Embarkation: 11:00 AM

Departure: 12:30 PM

Bid farewell to the hustle and bustle of Saigon (Ho Chi Minh City) while comfortably settling in your cabin when meandering along the busy ports and waterways. Soon after, the change is abrupt and you'll find yourself in the UNESCO listed Mangrove Biosphere Reserve of Can Gio which had been destroyed during the Vietnam War by toxic chemicals. Amazingly, the 75 hectares of forest was restored through re-a forestation in no time.

Cocktail reception at the Funnel Bar & Lounge.

DAY 2: CAN THO – THAN CHAU

“Vietnamese inventiveness”

See “Cai Rang”- Asia’s largest and most impressive floating market whilst sipping your favorite latte on the breakfast deck. Wooden poles at the front of each boat display wares for sale, such as jackfruit, sugar cane, morning glory stems or even freshly baked baguettes.

Take a small boat to see the market up close and continue navigating the narrow canals. Watch as local workers fire their brick kilns, make coconut candy and rice paper by hand. Listen to the fruit orchard owner’s explanation while tasting the various fruits plucked from the trees. A lunch picnic in one of the fruit orchards will be presented by The Jayavarman’s crew.

The Jayavarman sets sail for a cruise towards Chau Doc along the traffic of sand and rice barges in a scenery portraying smoking kilns of brick factories, fruit drying homes and rice paddy fields. A stop at the historical My Hoa Island with its unique rattan houses will mark the end of an eventful day of excursions. Farewell dinner on board.

DAY 3: CHAU DOC

The journey of The Jayavarman comes to an end. But in fact, this is actually the beginning of the end, as you will discover. Enjoy the cruise.

Eventually, we will disembark and transfer to the hotel: 10:00 am.
